Order of Preachers Dominican Sisters of Peace is a congregation of vowed Catholic Sisters (nuns) who are part of the worldwide Order of Preachers, often called simply the "Dominican Order." Our patron Saint Dominic de Guzman founded the Order in 1215 for the purpose of preaching the Holy Gospel of Christ Jesus to the world. Today, Dominicans embrace this "charism of preaching" in new and different ways, seeing their ministries and their very lives as forms of preaching. Throughout the US and abroad, the Dominican Sisters of Peace preach the Gospel through many ministries as one of 21 congregations of apostolic Dominican Sisters in the United States.
